

BUSINESS

People on the Move: Career changes in education, construction, law and more

By CINDY KENT
SOUTH FLORIDA SUN SENTINEL | DEC 13, 2021 AT 7:00 AM

Community

Goodman Jewish Family Services of Broward County Inc. named Randy Colman president and chief executive officer. Colman has been executive director/chief executive officer for the Adolph and Rose Levis Jewish Community Center in Boca Raton for the past decade. He also held other roles including director of the Sports Medicine Institute at Mount Sinai Medical Center and founding director of The Union for Reform Judaism's 6 Points Sports Academy in Greensboro, NC.

The Boca Raton Historical Society celebrated its Walk of Recognition inductees for 2021, in addition to 2020 honorees. The annual honor goes to individuals and organizations that serve and enrich the community. The 2021 Walk of Recognition inductees are: George S. Brown Jr., deputy city manager of Boca Raton and a former board member of the Schmidt Boca Raton History Museum; Robert K. Rollins Jr., president of The Beacon Group, and who served on the City of Boca Raton's Parks and Recreation Board for 10 years; and Edith Stein, co-founder of the Martin & Edith Stein Family Foundation, which donated $5 million in support of a planned arts and innovation center in Mizner Park. The 2020 Walk of Recognition inductees are: Terry Fedele, the late Jay Van Vechten, and Boca Ballet Theatre.

Anne M. Gannon, Palm Beach County constitutional tax collector, was appointed to the board of directors of Friends of the Mounts Botanical Garden.

